

Susanna's Bio

Susanna Dussling of Center Ring Presentations who says that "Anything is Possible if you Believe." Susanna, a keynote speaker motivates, inspires, and educates her audience on overcoming adversity, embracing change, leadership, success, and bullying. Susanna's program will leave you informed, inspired, and driven to tackle life's challenges. She shares the tools you need to live life successfully with compelling heartwarming stories infused with a touch of humor and audience interaction.

Susanna knows adversity, as she was born deaf but lives in a hearing world as a bilateral cochlear implant wearer and uses her experiences to teach us that in spite of setbacks, it is possible to achieve success with a positive attitude. Because of her hearing loss, Susanna knows about bullying.

Susanna knows leadership and change, gleaned from her 15+years' experience in retail management working for some of the leading retailers in the marketplace.

Background:

Susanna graduated from Southwest Texas State University and began a successful and challenging career in Retail Management. A few years ago, Susanna discovered her true calling as a speaker and trainer. She realized she enjoyed leading and inspiring others to realize their true potential whether in the workplace or in their personal lives. Now, Susanna helps organizations as a Trainer/Facilitator/Speaker.

She wrote Sunny and her Cochlear Implants a children's book about hope, acceptance, and a "can do" attitude.

Susanna recently obtained her Master's degree at the University of Houston in the Human Resources Development program. She also has a successful furniture refinishing business.

When not working, Susanna enjoys spending time with friends and family. She still loves to ride horses and spend time in the outdoors. She currently lives in Tomball with her 2 furry pets: Maverick and Charlie.
